We understand and recognize that there is always an inherent risk of bodily injury and harm associated with camping, horseback riding, boating activities, swimming, challenge rope courses, archery, and other camping activities. No warranties or representations of any kind have been made by the Jewish Community Center of Cleveland, its employees, agents, officers, directors, trustees, successors, or assigns regarding the activities at Camp Wise.

Signature of this Waiver and Release means that we and our child hereby personally assume all risks in connection with our child's participation in and attendance at Camp Wise and in connection with participation in any and all Camp Wise activities. We waive and release the Jewish Community Center of Cleveland, its officers, trustees, employees and volunteers, as well as any of its sponsors and/or affiliates from any and all claims relating to our child's attendance at Camp Wise, or his or her participation in any related Camp Wise activities, unless caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any such person or entity.

I have read and agreed to the Camp Wise Policies below.

policies

- To be eligible for member rates, JCC membership must extend through the camper's last 2007 camp day.
- All camp fees must be paid by March 15. Camp Wise reserves the right to cancel registrations with unpaid balances.
- Prior to March 15, all camp fees are refundable, including the deposit, for any reason. From March 15 – April 15 fees are refundable, but we will retain $500. After April 15, all fees including the full deposit, are non-refundable and non-transferable.
- A 10% Sibling Discount will be applied to camp fees for families with multiple campers. The camper at the highest program cost will be at regular fees, and all siblings will be given the 10% discount. The SIT program is not eligible for a sibling discount.
- There are no deductions for a camper arriving late or leaving early.
- The Camp Director reserves the right to dismiss any camper without refund who:
 - Willfully disregards camp rules or endangers the safety of themselves or others
 - Physically, psychologically, or verbally abuses another member of the camp community
 - Destroys camp property or the property of another member of the camp community
 - Requires greater supervision than can reasonably be provided by camp staff
 - Possesses or consumes alcohol or illegal drugs while at camp
- Any camper who sustains an injury or illness while at camp, necessitating departure for the balance of the session, will have pro-rated fees refunded.
- Disclosure of all medical and psychological treatments, past and present is required.
- A completed and signed health form must be received prior to the camper's arrival.
- In the event of an emergency, I authorize the Camp Director and the medical staff to act on my behalf according to their best judgment.
- Camp Wise is not responsible for loss or damage to camper's property.
- I authorize Camp Wise to take my child out of camp on supervised trips and activities.
- Camp Wise may use any photo, slide, or likeness of my child for promotional purposes.

A comprehensive Parent Handbook, including suggested packing list, bunking request, camper profile, health and insurance forms and transportation information will be sent in the spring.
